Do Cats Play Scrabble?

Do cats play Scrabble? That is a good question, maybe something I should have asked my wife before marrying her? Any way, cats can play Scrabble, but most of them choose to eat lasagna, watch TV, and sleep. Cats are following Garfield's example and are not using their brains properly. Every cat except for one doesn't play Scrabble. Ming Ming is her name, and she despises Garfield and plays Scrabble all the time. She has beaten many people including the computer and herself. This answers the question.

"kitteh" iz so word.
